KEY SKILLS —

Planning
Time Management
Critical Thinking
Collaborating
Problem Solving Skills
Calm Under Pressure

COMMUNICATION

Doing an online programming class during a pandemic is very tough since it is very hard to stay motivated and stay in contact with the teacher and your classmates. I strongly believe that this experience has made me a better communicator as I made sure to regularly reach out to my teachers for help or various resources.

LEADERSHIP

Chief Technology Officer of Volunteering Together for Service (VTS) club in school. In this position, I reported to the president of the club to coordinate any technological aspects of our volunteering club, such as websites for specific fundraisers.
